Gentlemen -

I have a Tridacna
caries of Bonie's, made between 1800 and 1850 hundreds B. C. which I should like to sell if it is of any real value. Should you care to take it up with me I will send you
the description the

Mrs. H. B. Hill,

Beverly Hills, Cal.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of September 15th to the Metropolitan Museum of Art has been referred to me for reply.

Your coin of Corinth may be worth anywhere from $1.50 to $3.00. It is doubtful if it is worth more than this. Thirty odd years ago they were considered much scarcer than they are today as large quantities have been found in recent years.

Very truly yours,
